Presented by:
Joe Deedon
TAC*ONE Consulting

As Founder and President of TAC ONE Consulting Joe Deedon has instructed several thousand hours of active shooter and tactical training for officers from law enforcement agencies nationwide. As a former sheriff's deputy he served as tactical operator with a SWAT team and now manages / instructs various TAC*ONE training programs nationwide. He has been actively involved in several active shooter events including the 2015 Deer Creek Middle School shooting - and has received several service medals including the Medal of Valor for his actions during an officer involved shooting with a barricaded gunman.

TUITION FREE

This training is an aggressive course designed to prepare police officers to effectively respond alone, or in pairs to an active shooter at a school or public event. Classroom training plus Simunition® reality-based scenarios designed to hone tactics, evaluate mindset and use of force decision-making will teach students how to successfully engage in order to stop the loss of life when seconds count.

Students will learn...

- One and two-officer response to an active shooter situation
- The difference between a barricaded subject and a hostage situation
- Use of force as it applies to an active shooter situation
- How to communicate effectively during an active shooter situation
- And more...

Prerequisite:

STUDENTS MUST BE IDAHO CERTIFIED OFFICERS (i.e. patrol, school resource, first responders)

CLASS LIMITED TO 24 STUDENTS – REGISTER EARLY
